

RE: Policies related to persons with Disabilities

To all PHA Tenants and Applicants:

The PHA is required to ask applicants and tenants if they require any type of accommodations in writing on the intake of the Application, Re-Examination documents, and notices of adverse action by the PHA.

“If you or anyone in your family is a person with disabilities and you require a specific accommodation in order to fully utilize our program and services, please contact the Housing Authority (PHA).”

A specific name and phone number will be indicated as the contact for requests for accommodation for persons with disabilities.
